

Louisiana's Bicentennial Statehood Celebration

Logo Usage Policy

The Louisiana Bicentennial Celebration logo may only be used with written consent of the Louisiana Bicentennial Commission. Upon approval, a PDF file containing the logo and its specifications will be emailed to the recipient.

If the terms listed below are violated or not agreed upon, the Louisiana Bicentennial Commission reserves the right to prohibit any organization, community group, business or event from using the logo.

In order to use the Louisiana Bicentennial logo, you must agree to the following:

- Only agencies, organizations, community groups, businesses, events or activities approved by the Louisiana Bicentennial Commission may utilize the logo.
- The Louisiana Bicentennial logo may not be altered or modified in any way. In order to maintain the highest production quality, the logo must always be reproduced from the high-resolution file provided to you by the Louisiana Bicentennial Commission. When enlarging or decreasing the size of the logo, you must make sure that the logo is not stretched horizontally or vertically.

The Louisiana Bicentennial Commission must approve exceptions to the color usage guidelines. If your agency, organization, community group or business would like to reproduce the logo, please complete the Logo Usage Application.
